KODIAK TO HOST FISHERY DEBATES, OCTOBER 3RD & 4TH

KODIAK, AK, SEPTEMBER 19, 2022 — The Kodiak Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce that once again, our community will be hosting fishery debates.

For over 30 years, statewide fisheries issues have been the focus of the candidate debates held in Kodiak. The following candidates accepted the invitation which will begin on Monday, October 3rd with the Alaska Gubernatorial debate between Candidates Bill Walker & Les Gara, which start at 7PM. On Tuesday, October 4th, the focus will turn to federal issues, with candidates Nick Begich, Chris Bye, Sarah Palin, and US House Representative Mary Peltola debating at 6:30 PM. This will be followed by US Senate candidates Pat Chesbro and Senator Lisa Murkowski.

This year, our debates will be held in person in Kodiak at the Gerald C. Wilson Auditorium and will be broadcast on KMXT 100.1FM and made available on public radio stations statewide. You will also be able to watch the debates on Zoom. (October 3rd Alaska Gubernatorial Zoom Link and on October 4th US House & US Senate Zoom Link)
